

Proclamation

- Whereas Co-operative Education is a program integrating academic study and practical work experience whereby students participate alternatively in the classroom and workplace; and
- Whereas Co-operative Education gives students the opportunity to apply classroom studies in a practical and paid working environment thereby enriching their education, increasing motivation and confidence, providing a source of new ideas and developing workplace skills and core competencies; and
- Whereas the employer identifies workplace opportunities through Co-operative Education, which supports their recruitment and training programs and enables business, industry and the community to partner with education, thus creating mutual ties; and
- Whereas Co-operative Education fosters an extension of the education institution while being responsive and adaptive to the evolving needs of employers and the community; and
- Whereas through provincial, national and international workplace opportunities, Co-operative Education promotes sustained global connections, offers students the opportunity to broaden their language and cultural skills, and to work and study in Canada and beyond; and
- Whereas by and with the consent of Cranbrook City Council on January 10, 2011

NOW THEREFORE, I, Scott Manjak, Mayor of the City of Cranbrook, do hereby proclaim the week of March 21 – 25, 2011 to be in Cranbrook, British Columbia.

CO-OPERATIVE EDUCATION WEEK
